

Board Member of Qendra Multimedia

Doruntina Basha was born in Prishtina (Kosovo). She studied Playwriting in Prishtina and completed her Masters degree in Humanities in St. Andrews (UK), Bergamo (IT) and Perpignan (FR). Her play “Gishti” (The Finger, 2011) won “Best Socially Engaged Contemporary Play” (2011) award in the Western Balkans drama competition organized by Heartefact Fund in Belgrade (Serbia), “Best Balkan Play” in MESS – Sarajevo International Theater Festival (2013) in Sarajevo (Bosnia and Herzegovina), and “Best National Play” (2016) at “Flaka e Janarit” in Gjilan (Kosovo). Her plays have been staged in Kosovo, Serbia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Macedonia, Austria and Italy, and translated in French, English, Italian, German, Serbian and, recently, Turkish. She also writes for TV and film. She lives and works in Prishtina.

